

The German Embassy School Addis Ababa (DBSAA) is seeking as of October 2026 a female assistant for primary school swimming lessons (part-time / hourly basis)

DBSAA

The German Embassy School Addis Ababa (DBSAA) is operated by the “German School Association in Ethiopia” and is accredited as an Excellent German International School with more than 90 years of outstanding achievements in education. More than 300 students are supported by around 100 dedicated staff members in a familial environment that nurtures their potential from nursery and kindergarten through primary school up to Grade 12. Beyond the classroom, the school cultivates a dynamic school culture where parents, alumni, and teachers come together. As a German international school, we immerse ourselves in the German language, history, and culture, offering an environment where children grow into empathetic, self-directed, and critical thinkers. At the same time, we explore perspectives from Ethiopia, a country rich in historical heritage and cultural diversity.

Scope of Work

From October to June, DBSAA offers swimming lessons for primary school students (Grades 1–4). We are seeking an assistant to support these lessons.
